

Member's Report w/e Sunday May 23rd

Hello Ladies,

Another week closer to our own Winter Carnival on Monday, June 6th and after some great work by the Carnival Secretary, Dorothy Lynch, we have a bumper day ahead of us. I believe 40 teams have accepted our invitation, which is the largest day we have had for quite some time. We will be having our usual "special day" raffle and any donations would be greatly appreciated.

More details below.

Start time 9:30am

Monday, June 6th

Lake Cathie Ladies Winter Carnival

A pop-up Henselite shop will be open on the day.

*Please note that the Club Bistro is closed on Mondays so if you are not bowling on the day, but are in the Club, you may either want to bring your own lunch or purchase a pie/sausage roll from the Bar. For catering purposes please order your pie/sausage roll, or both (no judgement) ☺ first thing in the morning to avoid disappointment.

As the bistro will be closed, our Team Providore will be arranging catering from an outside source for the bowlers. We need your help though by bringing in some slices or biscuits for morning tea/lunch. It is always lovely when visiting other Clubs to be spoilt with a home made treat, so let's show them all a true Lake Cathie welcome!

Monday, June 20th

Nambucca Bowls Club

3 Bowl Triples

Further details of all the above please check the Noticeboard.

Sat/Sunday, June 25th and 26th

Coaching Course

North Haven Bowling Club

See Di Fischer for details.

Joke of the week

The old man placed an order for one hamburger, French fries, and a drink. He unwrapped the plain hamburger and carefully cut it in half, placing one half in front of his wife.

He then carefully counted out the French fries, dividing them into two piles and neatly placed one pile in front of his wife.

He took a sip of the drink, his wife took a sip and then set the cup down between them. As he began to eat his few bites of hamburger, the people around them were looking over and whispering.

Obviously they were thinking, "That poor old couple-all they can afford is one meal for the two of them."

As the man began to eat his fries a young man came to the table and politely offered to buy another meal for the old couple. The old man said, they were just fine—they were used to sharing everything.

People closer to the table noticed the little old lady hadn't eaten a bite. She sat there watching her husband eat and occasionally taking turns sipping the drink...

Again, the young man came over and begged them to let him buy another meal for them. This time the old woman said "No, thank you, we are used to sharing everything."

Finally, as the old man finished and was wiping his face neatly with the napkin, the young man again came over to the little old lady who had yet to eat a single bite of food and asked "What is it you are waiting for?"

She answered, "The Teeth."

Thought of the day

1981 & 2005 – Two Interesting Years

Interesting Year 1981

1. Prince Charles got married.
2. Liverpool crowned soccer Champions of Europe.
3. Australia lost the Ashes.
4. The Pope died.

Interesting Year 2005

1. Prince Charles got married.
2. Liverpool crowned soccer Champions of Europe.
3. Australia lost the Ashes.
4. The Pope died.

Lesson to be learned:

The next time Charles gets married, someone should warn the Pope.

Remember to check the notice boards for rosters, draws, nomination forms and general information.

As always our thoughts and best wishes go out to anyone who is unwell or recovering, we hope to see you back soon.
